NOTE FILE:

Please see the Starred Legislative Assembly Question from Sri.R. Subbier, M.L.A. in the C.f. Submitted that no memorials regarding the abolition of the training school system for the Judicail Ministerial Service have been so far received. Training for clerksselected by the Madras Public Service Commission is given to all the Ministerial Service Viz. the Madras Secretariat Service, and the Madras Ministerial Service alike. In this connection it is also submitted that with a view to know whether the system of training clerks has really proved useful, certain select heads of departments have been consulted, among whom the Registrar of High Court was one. He has reported that a large majority of the District Judges and the appointing authorities in the City have reported that the [illegible] the system of training clerks has not secured any useful purpose. In order to improve the training in schools it has been proposed to modify the present syllabus of the training and to conduct terminal examinations at the end of the course. These proposals were also approved by H.P.M- Vide p.34. n.f. of L.F.I A note on the working of the scheme for training clerks from X on p.5 of (D).

In view of what is stated at A above and in as much as the report from the Registrar, High Court is not a memorial for abolition of the scheme and as also no representations from any private individuals for the abolition of training for the Judicial Ministerial Service have so far been received, the answer to clause (a) of the question in the c.f. may be (No) and to clauses (b) and (c)'may be do not arise'. For orders subject to orders, a draft answer is submitted for approval which Home may see before circulation.
